General Background

Roshni comes to Stirling LLP with over 20 years' experience in the legal industry. As a former member of the senior management team at BC's largest legal support provider to law firms, Roshni brings her knowledge of law firm management, business development, systems and customer service to her most current role as Director of Operations. With an extensive background and interaction with the legal community, Roshni has a keen perspective on what it takes to meet and exceed client's expectations. In her previous role, Roshni negotiated and managed contracts of varying scope with various Government Ministries and ICBC. She was involved with assisting industry professionals convert from the Province's manual to electronic land title and court registry service delivery options, which allowed her to gain a thorough understanding of the most current real estate and litigation practices and procedures.

In her role at Stirling LLP, Roshni is also putting her legal assistant certification to use by assisting the team with real estate transactions, residential conveyances as well as heading up the corporate records department.

Personal Information

When Roshni is not working, she is busy being a mom to a self-proclaimed gamer. She enjoys entertaining, traveling and spending what little spare time she has gaining recipe inspiration from the Food Network.
